

„Urząd dla mieszkańca Opolszczyzny”
„eOffice for citizen of Opolskie Voivodeship”

Lieder of the Project: Marshal Office of Opolskie Voivodeship

The partners: 56 communes and 7 poviats of Opole Region

The project location: Opolskie Voivodeship.

Launch date: December 2005

Planned close date: June 2006

Project co-financed by European Union from the resources of the European Regional Development Found (The Integrated Regional Operational Programme)

Aims of the project:

- Implementation of the information society initiative
- Increase accessibility to public on – line services in Opole Region
- Reduce disproportion in access to Internet and use of Internet in social and economic everyday life between Opole Region and the most developed EU states
- Create a complete service system for individual and institutional customer of self-government units of Opole Voivodeship.
- Streamline the document circulation
- Increase accessibility to information by integration of communication and information services

Implementation of the project:

- Purchase and install computer hardware
- Purchase and install computer software
- Purchase and install special software for e-circulation of documents
- Create an informatics network in self-government office buildings
- Implement procedures for e-circulation of documents in self-government offices.

Intended Results:

- Disseminate use of information technology in self-government units,
- Improvement of the competitiveness and cohesion of Opole Region in the field of information technology
- Implementation of electronic procedures in self-government offices,
- Implementation of informatics document and data management in self-government offices
- Implementation of electronic services in self-government offices
- Easier access to public services
- Reduce cost of self-government administration
- Shorten the time to complete all formal matters in self-government offices
- Transparency of self-government

Information prepared by
Rafał Makarewicz
City Office of Opole
European Affairs and Planning Development Department